GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR LICENSING

(01-01-2008/2)

Of photocopying of copyright protected work for information within organization

1. Licensor

Association of Swedish Craftsmen and Industrial Designers, Association of Swedish Professional Photographers, LISAB (Educational Writers in Sweden), Professional Photo Companies' and Photo Agencies' Association, Society of Swedish Composers, , Swedish Magazine Publishers' Association, The Association of Swedish Illustrators, The Journalists in Sweden, The Swedish Artists' National Organization, The Swedish Association of Educational Publishers, Swedish Music Publishers Association, TU Service AB (The Swedish Newspaper Publishers' Association), The Swedish Publishers' Association, The Swedish Society of Popular Music Composers, The Swedish Writers' Union (hereinafter called "the licensors").

The Licensors are members of Bonus Presskopia Economic Association, which operates as an umbrella organization inter alia with regard to this licence.

2. Definitions

The terms used in this licence are defined as follows

photocopying: production of copies on paper or OH sheets via a reprographical process, including telefax, publication: a book, booklet, compendium, brochure or the like, or a newspaper, magazine or other periodical that contains one or several works.

3. What may be reproduced

Subject to the provisions of this licence, the licensee may photocopy Swedish and non-Swedish

a) published literary works,

b) works of fine art and photographs that have been reproduced alongside text in published literary works, and

c) compiled material such as catalogues, tables and the like.

4. Purpose of reproduction

Photocopying is only permitted for the purpose of information within the organization, including for internal training arranged by the licensee.

As a result, the photocopies taken may be distributed only among employees of the organization and to other persons with other specific connection of a different kind to the organization, such as affiliates and members of the bodies of the organization. Thus, photocopying for use outside the organization, such as external information, advertising, PR, sales and other marketing, is not permitted.

5. How much may be reproduced

Number of pages

The licensee may photocopy 15 percent of the total number of pages in one and the same publication, although not more than 15 pages.

If a specific section, for example, a chapter of a book or an article in a newspaper, needs to be photocopied and the section exceeds the above-mentioned limits, the whole section may nevertheless be reproduced.

Number of copies

Photocopies may be produced in as many copies as are required to satisfy the need for information within the organization. However, the total number may not during the period of licensing exceed the number for which the licensee has submitted an application and paid a fee for. Should it emerge during the period that the requirement is greater, the licensee is under a duty to notify Bonus Presskopia to that effect.

6. Acknowledgement of source

The photocopies shall indicate from which publication the material has been reproduced, as well as, where appropriate, serial number, date or year of publication and, where stated, the name of the author or photographer, respectively.

7. Prohibition against reproduction

The licence does not encompass photocopying of:

a) musical notation and other graphical representations of musical works; nor

b) works in respect of which the author or the rights holder has filed a prohibition against the production of copies, at the licensee or licensors. The licensors are under a duty to notify the licensee as to any such prohibition that may come to the licensors' attention. This duty is deemed to be discharged if a list of current prohibitions is made available on Bonus Presskopia's Website at www.bonuspresskopia.se.

8. Verification and statistical surveys

The licensors are entitled via Bonus Presskopia to receive any information as to implementation of the licence that the licensors may request, and to verify via visits the photocopying that takes place. The licensee undertakes to take part in the statistical surveys of reproduction that the licensors may conduct via Bonus Presskopia.

9. Fee and calculation of number of reproductions

The licensee will pay a fee in respect of the licence period on receipt of an invoice from Bonus Presskopia in accordance with the tariff applied by Bonus Presskopia at any one time. Payment terms: 30 days.

The licensee will state in his licence application the number of reproductions for which a licence is required during the period of the licence. For this purpose, a reproduction in A4 format or smaller is counted as one reproduction, an A3 reproduction as two etc. If several pages in a publication fit on to one page of a reproduction, the original page is counted as one reproduction.

No refund will be paid in respect of any unused reproduction licence.

10. Period of licence and cessation of licence

The licence enters into force on the day stated on the licence application and is valid for one year from that date. Bonus Presskopia will send a new invoice before the end of the period of the licence. On payment of the invoice, the licence will be extended for the next period. If on the occasion of extension, the licensee wishes to change the number of reproductions licensed, Bonus Presskopia is to be notified to that effect. On the occasion of the extension of the licence, Bonus Presskopia is entitled to amend the general terms and conditions of the licence.

If the licensee is in breach of the provisions of this licence, the licensors are entitled to terminate the licence with immediate effect.

In any dispute as to the meaning of the terms and conditions stated in the agreement, the Swedish version shall prevail.
